Mrs. Peterschick

About me...

Hi! My name is Leslie Peterschick and I am excited to be your 2nd grade teacher this year! This will be my 18th year of teaching 2nd Grade at Rosalia. I have lived in the Rosalia area for 28 years. I have three beautiful daughters (all Rosalia and WSU graduates) and three handsome son-in-laws. I also have the cutest grandson that I just adore! My husband Dee and I have a Border Collie named Jake and three cats; Roscoe, Peanut, and Little Guy. We also have a bunch of cows that don't have names.

My Favorites...

Birthday... June 20th

Color... Purple

Dessert... Strawberry Pizza

Candy... cinnamon disks and anything caramel

Hobbies/Interests... reading, needlework, kayaking, playing with my grandson

Flower... Lilac

Beverage... coffee, Oolong tea, and Starbucks Cherry limeade

Fast Food... Sausage McMuffin

Book... Mrs. Mike

My Education...

I graduated from Eastern Washington University in 1983 with a Bachelors Degree in Education, majoring in reading, minoring in math. I earned my Master's Degree in Early Childhood Education from EWU in 1989. I recently earned my National Board Certification as an Early Childhood Generalist.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns.
